Heaven Hill Distilleries, Inc., was founded shortly after Prohibition in Bardstown, Kentucky by the Shapira family to produce and market Bourbon and premium American Whiskys. The company is the largest independent, family-owned and operated distilled spirits supplier in the country, the sixth-largest spirits supplier in the United States, and second largest holder of aging Bourbon Whisky in the world with an inventory in excess of 1.5 million barrels.

The distillery chose a Kirby building for their latest warehouse expansion. The project consists of a 92,000 sf warehouse with a connector that joins the new space to an existing building. It features a KirbyLok vertical standing seam roof, and KirbyWall panels.
