

Appling Middle School

LOCATION

Macon, GA

SIZE

51,758 sf

WALL SYSTEM

Brick and masonry block

ROOF SYSTEM

Roof-Lok Plus

Dark Bronze

BUILDING END-USE

Middle School Classrooms

This middle school located in Bibb County, Georgia was named after a respected past administrator, Peter G. Appling. The project consists of three classroom wings, an entry way, and a common area created for the chorus. The rigid frame buildings have recessed columns allowing the classroom interior walls to be free and clear of any column bump outs. The attractive buildings are all covered with a Roof-Lok vertical rib standing seam roof.